Private Label Solutions That Work for Your Business

Granville Island Candles offers a range of private label services designed to suit both large and small business needs. We can print small to medium quantities of high quality labels in house on our state of the art Solid Ink based printing system, on standard label shapes and sizes or we can cut the label to a shape of your choice. For large runs of labels we can provide you with competitive quotes from our strategic partners from the printing industry. All in house labels are printed in full colour at no extra charge. Also available is our in house laser engraving service. We own and operate a state of the art CO2 computer controlled laser engraver capable of etching most of our products with a simple yet elegant design. Private labels allow even the smallest of businesses to provide their clients with products or gifts branded under their own name. For pricing please see reverse side.
